Ms Vermaelen, your original letter included blank forms for our use if it was determined that an amendment needed to be made to the original report. Since the original amounts and dates of reimbursements were accurately reported, I am of the opinion that an amendment is not necessary. If however, you are of the opinion that an amendment is needed in order to provide further clarification as to the nature of the expenditures, I would be happy to provide those amendments if so advised.

Please accept my apologies for the delay in responding to your request, however your letter caught my firm in the midst of our most active time of the year.
