Dear Members of the Board,

My sincere apologies for being so late with this report. I didn't realize until I received a certified letter from you an hour ago that I even was required to file. I just spoke to Ms Sommers at the Ethics office and she explained my responsibilities, and my mistake to me. The mistake is just ignorance on my part - I thought after filing my last report because I had no more contributions or expenses that I didn't have to file anything more. Absolutely if I had realized then what I do now I would have. This is my first experience with anything like this and it is very new to me. My situation is unchanged from my last report, with the remaining $27.35.

Again, I am so sorry. I ask, if you could please be forgiving, as I will never make this mistake again.

Thank you so much

Sheri Campbell
