DEWEY
RATCLIFF
Parish President

October 19, 1999

Ms. Maris McCrory
Board of Ethics
Campaign Finance Office
8401 United Plaza Suite 200
Baton Rouge, LA 70809

1999 OCT 20 PM 2:

Dear Ms. McCrory:

It has come to my attention that loan guarantees I obtained for my campaign for re-election as parish president of Livingston Parish may not have been in full accordance with state requirements. The loans from the Bank of Zachary were signed by me with Mr. Bruce Easterly as guarantor. When this transaction was completed, I was not aware that the $2,500 contribution limitation per individual also applied to loan guarantees. I have taken immediate steps to correct this situation by instructing the bank to prepare new loan documents for my signature and my signature alone. And, I have made arrangements with the bank to render the original documents null and void.

I want to assure you that this error was inadvertent and was due to an incorrect interpretation of the campaign finance regulation by myself and my campaign treasurer. For your information, Mr. Bruce Easterly is a respected business owner and lifelong resident of Livingston Parish. The Easterly and Ratcliff families have been close friends for several generations.

Please let me know if there is anything else I need to do to ensure that my campaign is in full compliance.

Sincerely,

Dewey Ratcliff

Dewey Ratcliff
