Attention: Judith Jackson

Dear Ms. Jackson,

By this letter I am transmitting a 48 Hour report for the Citizens for Caddo's Future committee of which I am the Treasurer.

The committee was formed earlier this year but had no funds. As you may remember, we submitted our Committee registration form with a $100.00 check from Charles Grubb, one of our committee members, which was returned to us. Ultimately, the committee raised some money. A Federal Identification number was obtained on April 19, 2007 and a bank account opened with our first and only deposit so far on April 20, 2007. We had a meeting on April 24, 2007. In preparation for that meeting I checked your website only to find out that apparently we were/are delinquent with our filing of reports. Since we didn't have any money until after the start of the 48 hour reporting period, we were delinquent before I even knew it.

This report brings us up to date. I expect to be receiving additional funds, and we expect to spend it all at one time for printing and mailing, approximately the first week in May. Of course I will then file another 48 hour report. We respectfully request that any penalties be waived.

Your consideration and assistance will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Peter M. Bratlie CPA
