To Whom It May Concern:

Two weeks ago I called your office one day after the September 3rd deadline, not realizing I would be charged a $40.00 late fee. This letter is to explain a $5.00 error I made on that particular form.

I was actually filling in the form while a very patient and helpful person in your office walked me through the forms. In my haste, I entered the one and only expense I had at the time incorrectly. I discovered my error today while trying again to get my next set of forms in by the deadline.

I'm sure you have already realized I am not a CPA or accountant, but the wife, treasurer, campaign chairperson, a full time employee and mom trying to get it all done.

Please call if you have any questions concerning my errors.

Sincerely

Verna L. Romero
