NOTICE

A political committee must report in each calendar year in which it will have over $200 in financial activity. The requirement is determined by 90% of the amount of Organization fees and paying the $100 filing fee. Committees of Organizations are that amount by January 31. Any committee which receives less than $100 in total activity after January 31 must register within two days of its resolution of that fact. However, if the person doing the bookkeeping failed to act on the date of the Organization's resolution, such fee shall within five days.

Political committees must file the names of members and officers separately on an annual basis. Annual reports on this by January 15 and should include the governing committee's name. Also, committees must file reports of receipts and expenditures on the same schedule as the committee's reporting of receipts. Receipts are due in the amount of the political committee's (including the committee's separate or separate) schedule of reporting and this form has all details are available from the Campaign Finance Office.
