

CHARTER SCHOOL BANKING DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

R.S. 17:3991(A)(1)(b)(ii) creates a narrow exception allowing a member of a charter school governing or management board to serve as an officer, director, or employee, whether compensated or not, of any national or state bank; however, he shall (1) recuse himself from voting in favor of any such bank and does not otherwise participate in the charter school's consideration of any matter affecting actual or potential business with the bank, (2) disclose the reason for recusal and files these reasons, in writing, in the minutes or record of the charter school, and (3) file this disclosure form with the Board of Ethics within fifteen (15) days of any such recusal. Any such disclosure statement shall be deemed filed when it is received in the office of the Board of Ethics or at the time it is postmarked by the United States Postal Service, if it is subsequently received in the office of the Board of Ethics, whichever is earlier.

NOTE: This exception is narrow -- completion of this form will not cure any violation of the Ethics Code except those situations specifically addressed in R.S. 17:3991(A)(1)(b)(ii).
