LOUISIANA CODE OF GOVERNMENTAL ETHICS

- LSA R.S. 42:1101 et seq. are the conflicts of interest provisions for public servants in Louisiana.
- Limits the 'expenditure' amount to be spent on a legislator or executive branch official.

THE ETHICS CODE APPLIES TO "PUBLIC SERVANTS"

Elected Officials

Public Employees

are persons in the furtherance of a governmental function whether compensated or not.

Legislators and Executive Branch Officials are considered to be "Public Servants" and are bound by the restrictions contained in the Ethics Code.

"PROHIBITED SOURCE"

For Public Employees:

(In addition to the prohibited sources listed below)

- A person who conducts activities which are regulated by the public employee's agency. [R.S. 42:1115B(1)]
- A person who has a substantial economic interest that can be affected by the performance or non-performance of the public employee's job duties. [R.S. 42:1115B(2)]

For Elected Officials:

- A person who has or is seeking a contractual, business, or financial arrangement with your agency. [R.S. 42:1115A(1)]
- Someone who, for compensation, attempts to influence any legislation or ordinance of the elected body.

SECTION 1115 - GIFTS

A public servant may NOT accept anything of economic value, directly or indirectly, as a gift from someone who is considered a prohibited source.

THING OF ECONOMIC VALUE

Means money or any thing having economic value.,

EXCEPT:

- Promotional items having no substantial resale value;
- Food and drink consumed while the guest of the giver;
 - $56 cap on food and drink purchased per event (effective July 1, 2012).
 - No cap for a gathering "in conjunction with" a meeting related to a national or regional organization or a meeting of a statewide organization of governmental officials or employees.
 - Pharmaceutical samples.

 Admission to a civic, non-profit, educational or political event if the public servant is a program honoree or speaker;

• For Legislators, food, refreshments, and lodging reasonably related to making a public speech reasonable transportation from his home, capitol, to the site of the speaking engagement. Section 1123(16).

THE GIVER OF A PROHIBITED GIFT SECTION 1117

The giver of a prohibited gift to a public servant violates the Code of Governmental Ethics and may be subject to enforcement proceedings.

SECTION 1111 - PROHIBITED INCOME

A public employee may not render compensated services to or for a prohibited source as defined in §1115(a)(1) and (b). [R.S. 42:1111C(2)(d)]

PROHIBITIONS ON INCOME SECTION 1111

A Public Servant may not receive:

- Anything of economic value for the performance of his official duties and responsibilities,
- other than his salary and related benefits from his governmental entity to which he is duly entitled.

Campaign Contributions:

- Campaign contributions to a legislator fall under the Campaign Finance Disclosure Act and are reportable by the candidate not the Lobbyist.
- Remember that Lobbyists may not make campaign contributions during a legislative session.

La. R.S. 24:50 et seq.

- A lobbyist must account for the name of each person by whom he is paid or is to be paid,
- the amount he is paid or is to be paid (by category) for the purpose of lobbying,
- and a characterization of such payment as paid, earned but not received, or prospective when registering with the online system.

A lobbyist must "reasonably allocate" his compensation and report only that amount paid to lobby.

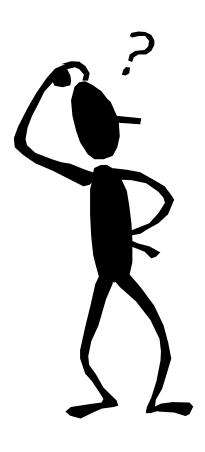

- Indication of potential subject matters to be lobbied, by listed category when a lobbyist registers.
- The identity of each legislator, or executive branch official (from a list) or spouse with whom he or his employer has, or has had in the preceding 12 months, a business relationship.
 - "business relationship" means any transaction, contract, or activity that is conducted or undertaken for profit and which arises from a joint ownership interest, partnership, or common legal entity between a lobbyist or his employer and the public servant or spouse who owns 10% or more of such interest, partnership, or legal entity.

- Expenditure Reports include:
 - the aggregate amount of expenditures on legislators and executive branch officials by name,
 - as well as expenditures made on the spouse and minor children of the public servant.
- Expenditures on the staff of the legislature will also be disclosed on the reports.

- Filing an Expenditure Report with knowledge of its falsity is punishable by the DA as felony.
- The legislature shall publish the names of the lobbyists who have filed reports with knowledge of their falsity.
- Three year requirement for a Lobbyist to keep records that document all of the information in the reports filed.
